

Financial Regulations

23. The Commission adopted its Financial Regulations. With regard to Members' contributions, the Commission agreed that while 150 days from the beginning of the financial year should be allowed for payment, Members would, taking into account their respective internal budgetary timing, make their payments as soon as practicable after the beginning of the financial year.