

ADOPTION OF THE REPORT

16.1 The report of the Twenty-fifth meeting of the Scientific Committee was adopted.

CLOSE OF THE MEETING

17.1 In closing the meeting, Dr Fanta thanked the Secretariat staff for their dedicated support, the interpreters for facilitating the plenary discussions, the conveners of working groups, subgroups and other groups for developing the intersessional work of the Scientific Committee, and all participants for their efforts. These collective contributions had resulted in a productive and amicable meeting.

17.2 Dr Holt, on behalf on the Scientific Committee, thanked Dr Fanta for her leadership and kind patience. The Scientific Committee also congratulated Dr Fanta on her re-election to the Chair for a second term, and looked forward to the next meeting.

17.3 The meeting was closed.

REFERENCES

- Casaux, R.J. and E.R. Barrera-Oro. 2006. Shags in Antarctica: their feeding behaviour and ecological role in the marine food web. Ant. Sci., 18 (1): 3–14.
- van Wijk, E.M., A.J. Constable, R. Williams and T. Lamb. 2000. Distribution and abundance of Macrourus carinatus on BANZARE Bank in the southern Indian Ocean. CCAMLR Science, 7: 171–178.